Uniform Policy

Uniform Policy

At The Quran Hub we aim to deliver quality education side by side with tarbiyyah. Our online staff and students have a set protocol to adhere to when it comes to uniform. Our aim of having a uniform policy is to instill etiquettes in our learners, with the intention of acting upon the sunnah dress code of the prophet (SAW).

Please see below the expected uniform for our students:

Boys:

- White jubba/thobe,hat
- Shalwar kameez/kafani

Boys should avoid wearing jeans and short tops online, Clothing must be free from animation prints or slogans/brand names/logos which are contrary to Islamic ethos.

Girls:

- Plain black jilbab, black burkha/dupatta (all hair must be covered) clothes must be loose and cover the whole body, except the face, hands, feet.

Children appearing online without the appropriate uniform consistently may be told to reschedule their lesson by their tutor. The Quran Hub hopes to instill discipline and good tarbiyyah in all its students. Excuse of the uniform being in the wash or misplaced will be unacceptable.

Please assist your child in preparing for their lessons

- Have one or more uniform at home.
- Wash the uniform in advance.

The importance of personal Hygiene

Islam places a great emphasis on cleanliness, to the point that in a hadith the prophet (SAW) has been deemed it as half of our faith.

Hygiene Students should always dress in a clean and tidy manner in order to provide a hygienic learning environment.

Parents should ensure the following:

1. Children use the toilet before the lesson starts and do wudhu before coming online.
2. Clothes/ uniform ironed looking smart online. To act upon the sunnah of cleanliness with intention of reward.
3. Encouraging the use of the (siwak) dry toothbrush, with the intention of acting upon the sunnah of the prophet (SAW).
4. Emphasis on regularly washing our hands and being in the state of wudhu.
